Type Of Art/Craft: Watercolour Painting

Ian is mostly self-taught. He tries to explore and push his creative boundaries using the various techniques watercolour offers. He likes to paint with watercolour because the more miles he puts on his brushes, techniques become easier to implement and usually provide better results. Nature is a favourite subject and he is inspired by the seasons at the lake.

Type Of Art/Craft: Handcrafted Soap & Soap Dishes (wood and pottery)

Name of Studio: Treehouse Soap

“Our family began with a need for quality soap with natural ingredients that are safe for your skin and the environment. Treehouse Soaps have a rustic, natural look and are handmade in small batches in our studio. Local ingredients are important in the making of our soaps. Soap varieties include Lavender Basil, Lemongrass Sage, Beer, Unscented and Baby, shaving bars for men and ladies and a bar soap safe for your pet.”

Lea Bartlett studied as an artist through Haliburton School of Art and Design where she began with pottery and learned techniques in clay both on wheel and handcrafted. This developed into other styles and products ranging from handcrafted furniture, wire sculpture, stone carving, blown and stained glass. Lea quickly took her knowledge of design and handcrafted materials into the world of soap and scents. Over the last few years, she has closely studied and is continually learning the craft of soap making and has now launched the Treehouse Soap brand.

New for 2019: Emu and Neem (helps soothe from acne, rosacea, eczema prone skin), Cranberry & Rosehip, men’s shaving bar, brush, brush/shaver holder, scuttle shaving dish as a boxed set.

Type Of Art/Craft: Oil Painting
The diverse Haliburton landscape is where Marleen finds much of her inspiration, awakening the senses to create oil paintings which celebrate the colours of the Kennisis Lake area. The themes of Marleen’s oil paintings consist mainly of vibrant landscapes and images, with many paintings portraying the layers of magnificent and rich fall colours. Marleen’s second greatest inspiration comes from her Dutch heritage and love for tulips. Their strong colours and bold shapes inspire Marleen to celebrate their vibrancy. By using broad, relaxed brush strokes of intense colour, impressionistic-realistic paintings are created.

Currently residing in Ottawa, Marleen has lived and travelled throughout much of Canada. Marleen is a retired teacher and vice-principal who has been surrounded by the influences of art from a very young age, and has been a member of the Kennisis Lake cottage community for over 40 years. Marleen has had work exhibited and sold at the Gordon Harrison Gallery in Ottawa, Plumes et Glisse in Tremblant, Manotick Gallery and Framing, Haliburton and Great Britain, and has created a number of commissioned pieces.

Type Of Art/Craft: Etched Woodworking

Studio Name: Struck By Lightning

“I create a variety of wood products using locally sourced logs, including platters, coasters and decorative pieces. The unique aspect of my work is that I etch ‘Lichtenberg Figures’ (the pattern created by lightning) into all of my pieces to make stunning designs in the wood. I am always experimenting and have a diverse range of products, which means that every one is unique. I am a hobbyist and student. I am fascinated with physics and the sciences as a whole, and also enjoy the arts. Combining these fields in a visually pleasing way is my goal in my work. I have been woodworking for the last five years of my life and exhibited in 2018 Art on the Dock as well.”

John is a former member of the Fleming College Board of Governors and has taken multiple courses over 20+ years at Haliburton School of Art + Design focusing on ceramics. John and his family have been on the lake since 1971 and full-time residents for the past 10 years. John works with porcelain clay, raku, ceramic Xmas Trees and NEW this year - charcuterie boards/pottery. The exciting part of the pottery process lies in embracing various glaze effects. Raku is fired red hot — pot moved from the kiln & put into a container with combustible sawdust or pine needles. Clay pieces are thrown and molded by hand and fired in our studio. Maple leaves are a theme on many pieces as an acknowledgment of the local lake environment. NEW this year are various charcuterie boards (made from wood from the Haliburton Forest) combined with pottery bowls.

In 2018, AOTD raised over $5,000 for this program and we are hoping to be able to contribute even more this year. Many exhibitors will be collecting contributions to Artists in the Schools & Community at their locations. We would appreciate it if you would share your spare change, paper money or bring a cheque made out to The Arts Council ~ Haliburton Highlands. (Charitable receipts will be provided for larger contributions.) Let’s show that Kennisis cares & help children in Haliburton County access arts education.
The Artists in the Schools & Community program provides:

- Arts experiences for children, youth and teachers with local professional artists in the classroom and the Haliburton County Youth Hub
- Curriculum links between the arts and other school subjects
- Opportunities for children and youth to learn about various careers in the arts and creative businesses
- Connections between the community and its schools

Arts and culture play a significant role in the life of our community but many children living in Haliburton County have limited access to these experiences.

Approximately 22% – 37% of the children attending the five elementary schools in Haliburton County live in lower-income households. Lack of family resources often limits their access to extra-curricular activities.

Each year the Artists in the Schools & Community program strives to reach 1/2 of the children in grades 1 – 8 in Haliburton County. The classroom teacher matches the artists and their projects to their students’ interests as well as the curriculum.

It costs approximately $12.40 per student per session. The Arts Council ~ Haliburton Highlands raises funds from a wide variety of sources to deliver the Artists in the School program. Your
